St. Joseph School exists to prepare ourselves and our students to live a faith-filled life.

We offer a quality education to children of all ethnic, religious and economic backgrounds. The teachings of Jesus are integrated throughout the curriculum. In educating the whole child, we help each one to reach his/her highest potential.

We are committed to offering the most affordable, quality, private school education in the area.

- Curriculum is developed and maintained in compliance with the Diocese of Erie and exceeds state requirements.
- Classes include Art, Music/Band, P.E., STEM, Robotics, and cursive handwriting.
- Tuition assistance, scholarship programs, and flexible monthly payments are available. Currently a family of four with an income of $116,216 or less qualifies for scholarships.
- Extended day program for the 2019-2020 school year.

Transportation is available through North Clarion, Forest Area, Clarion, and Keystone School districts.

St. Joseph School is a member of the National Catholic Education Association and is fully accredited by the Middle States Commission on Elementary Schools.
