

Isaiah 32:17-18 And the work of the righteousness shall be in peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance forever. <sup>18</sup> And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.

Preschool News: Teacher Feature

It is enrollment time for St. Boniface Preschool! As the preschool prepares for enrollment for our summer and fall programs the staff were each asked to take a moment to write a little about themselves that will be shared in upcoming bulletins as well in the St. Boniface Preschool social media/marketing posts. This week we will feature Mrs. Brooke Lander, Preschool Director.

My name is Brooke Lander. I am the preschool director. I have been the director of St. Boniface Preschool since July 2020. My past experiences were teaching preschool at the eastside YMCA, the First Presbyterian Church of North East Preschool, Harbor Care Christian Childcare center, as well as taking care of children in my home while I was a stay at home mom. I earned my Elementary Education degree from Edinboro University, but continually was drawn to work with preschool age children.

Aside from my professional life, I am also a wife and a mother of 3 teenage children (a son and twin daughters). I grew up in the Greenfield/North East/Greene township area and am a graduate from Seneca Highschool. When I am not at St. Boniface you can find me spending time with my family.

My favorite thing about working with the early childhood field is the relationships that I build with each child and his/her family. Students spend many hours under the care of the preschool staff. It is important to have a positive relationship with the families so parents can trust that their child is loved, safe and secure while at school.

I think St. Boniface is special because God is at the center of the school. It is important to remember that this preschool belongs to God, my work is through Him each day. This preschool is unique in the fact that we get to pray, give thanks, and attend church. We don't just talk about God; we get the opportunity to talk TO Him! Because of these experiences, I find myself surrounded by a kind and loving people who are very much like family.
