Alliance for International Monasticism

On the weekend of July 30-31, 2022 our parish will host a speaker for the Alliance for International Monasticism (AIM USA).

Once a year, as part of the Missionary Cooperative Plan throughout the United States, each parish in the diocese welcomes a member or an associate of a religious community involved in missionary work.

Sister Ann Hoffman, OSB, from Mount Saint Benedict Monastery in Erie, PA; is this year's representative who will share with us some of the work of AIM USA. AIM USA has formed an alliance between 140 US and Canadian monasteries with over 400 Benedictine and Cistercian monasteries in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean and Latin America and Eastern Europe. These Benedictine and Cistercian women and men form centers of prayer, education, health and agriculture in some of the poorest regions of the world.

Please respond to this appeal with openness and generosity.

Reading 2	Colossians 1:15-20 (Christ's fullness and reconciliation)
Gospel Key	Luke 10:25-37 (The good Samaritan) But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. Adults:	When have you gone out of your way to help a stranger in need?
Children:	Would you help a new student who needed help? Why or why not?

Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

Pope St. John Paul II had a remarkable ability of remembering thousands and thousands of names - even if he didn't see someone for years. Maybe you have this unique gift - you just remember names. Maybe you have the more common gift (or curse) - you remember faces but not names. Now, imagine you were a 29 year old priest assigned to DuBois, Falls Creek, Sykesville, Reynoldsville, and the school system at DuBois Central Catholic. Imagine if you saw some people every three weeks due to a priest schedule which rotates parishes. I ask that you introduce yourself to me and state your name. It would really help me, especially if I don't see you on a daily basis or even a weekly basis (due to priests rotating among the five parishes on the weekends). I will then follow the Julius Caesar strategy (a strategy that he used with thousands of people throughout the Roman Empire). When Julius would meet a new soldier, politician, or civilian, he would immediately use the name to start each sentence with the person. He was known as being one of the finest leaders in the Roman ranks because he knew so many by their names.

The next time you are around someone who just "remembers names," notice how often the person uses peoples' names in sentences. Julius Caesar didn't have the remarkable gift such as Pope St. John Paul II - he just chose to work at it.

I'll do the same with your help.

- Fr. Daghir
