Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

Today's Gospel passage is all about evangelization. Jesus quite often utilizes images to reinforce his teachings. Today he uses salt, a city, and a lamp to express his teaching on evangelization.

By the way, what is evangelization? Evangelization is sharing the good news that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead. Evangelization means that, as a result of the Resurrection, Jesus is Lord. Jesus is Lord of everything: my dreams, relationships, gifts, talents, hopes, worries, fears, aspirations, my past, my present, my future, goals, anxieties, stresses... everything.

Evangelization is when the Gospel radiates through a human being. Well, what does this look like? It looks like salt permeating food, improving its taste like a person who encounters the Gospel and permeates her family, her workplace, her friends with Christ. It looks like a city set on a mountain like a person filled with Christ so that others can see that life can be lived at a higher pitch, that we are built for more. It looks like a lamp on a lampstand which casts its light everywhere like a person not ashamed or fearful to share the Gospel.

Notice, salt, a city on a mountain, and a lamp on a lampstand all radiate out in different ways. Salt permeates, a mountain is visible, and a lamp casts out light into the darkness. Do we live Christian lives which permeate, which are visible, and which cast light into the darkness?

If so, we are evangelizing. If not, we have serious work to do.

Fr. Ben Daghir

CSA

The 2023 Catholic Services Appeal will be conducted throughout our diocese on February 19. The CSA is the main source of support for projects and services of the diocese which serve parishes and the wider community in northwestern Pennsylvania. Our diocese does the work of the Gospel and needs your help to continue this important work.

Bishop Lawrence Persico assures us that funds donated to the CSA are placed in a designated account and used solely to support the programs and ministries of the diocese and cannot be used for any other purpose.

The CSA is essential to helping the Diocese of Erie fulfill its mission to evangelize, educate, serve, proclaim the Word, celebrate the sacraments, and provide hope to people in need. Your participation ensures the success of the CSA and is important to the health of our parish. Please join other Catholics from across the 13 counties of our diocese in supporting this important appeal.

Thank you
