Their day started at 6:30 a.m. unloading, sorting and assisting in selling 385 mums. They were very polite, courteous and hardworking. You were AWESOME! We couldn't have done it without you. Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments

October is Respect Life Month: Our faith calls for us to uphold the value of human life and the dignity of the human person. The protection of children and vulnerable adults is the responsibility of the entire Church, including the faithful. The protection of children, youth and vulnerable adults from abuse and other harm is a respect life issue, and we must all do our part to uphold this ideal. Anyone who suspects or knows of abuse should report it immediately. For information on reporting child abuse visit <https://www.eriecnd.org/childprotection/>

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Saying Thank You

Reading 1	2 Kings 5:14-17 (Elisha's cure of Naaman)
Reading 2	2 Timothy 2:8-13 (Paul's faithfulness to the gospel)
Gospel	Luke 17:11-19 (Ten lepers)
Key	Then one of the lepers, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. (Luke 17:15-16)
Adults:	Whose generosity do you tend to take for granted? How will you change this?
Children:	When have you failed to say thank you? Why does this matter?

Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

Faith builds upon reason. Grace builds upon nature. As a result, what we eat matters. I am not an uber-healthy eater but I lean on the healthy side. Occasionally, I really do enjoy ice cream, chocolate, Diet Coke, really good McChicken from McDonalds, etc. and the list could continue for quite some time. Overall, I lean on an avoidance of artificial sugars and I try to eat a variety of colors. I enjoy the science behind nutrition but I have had to practically simplify it: avoid artificial sugars and eat many colors. The avoidance of artificial sugars is incredibly challenging in the United States of America. The "many colors" principle is much more reasonable to do. Many colors imply fruits, vegetables, and a host of other foods. The next time you sit down to eat, look down at your plate. How many colors are on it? One. Two. Only three? Or, are there five, six, seven, eight or more colors on your plate? The array of colors means vitamins, protein, probiotics, lipids, good calories, carbohydrates, minerals, antioxidants, etc. It's a very easy and simple formula to follow: try to avoid artificial sugars and eat a variety of colors.
Fr. Ben Daghir

In Loving Memory

In your prayers please remember Veronica Mitchell, sister of Ed Sikora. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace, and may their family know the loving presence of God, family and friends.
