CHILD PROTECTION AND CREATING SAFE ENVIRONMENTS

Digital Dating Abuse can be defined as “a pattern of behaviors that control, pressure, or threaten a dating partner using a cell phone or the internet.” One quarter of youth (12-17) who have been in a romantic relationship during the previous year report that they’d been the victim of digital dating abuse. So, what are some of the best ways for a parent to open up communication with their child about a delicate topic like online dating? First and foremost, ask your child what they are doing online and then really listen to why they like or don’t like what’s going on there. Parents must be diligent about staying on top of the latest trends. Great online dating tips can be found at www.cyberwise.org. To see what the diocese is doing to help maintain safe environments for children and youth visit www.eriecnd.org/childprotection/

Thank you to all who helped to make Catholic Schools Week such a memorable one this year! A special thank you to Fr. Christopher for attending so many of our events and for our teachers and PTO parents who put so much effort into planning and executing so many activities! We are so proud to have a Catholic school at St. Michael Parish!

"Why I Value Catholic Education" from Miss Mary Jo Lipani

My mother attended Saint John the Baptist School in Scotdale, Pennsylvania. Because of her wonderful experience there, she enrolled me in first grade at Saint Michael School in 1953. My teacher was Sister Mary Justina, my first introduction to the wonderful education I would receive from the Sisters of Mercy.

The Sisters taught us lessons in faith and value that would serve us for a lifetime. We were prepared for the reception of sacraments, taught prayers and took part in beautiful faith traditions. They encouraged academic excellence, respect for others, love of learning and values that demanded love of God and neighbor.

I graduated from high school well prepared for college thanks to the Sisters and lay teachers who were my role models for twelve years. I continued my Catholic education at Mercyhurst College, always receiving encouragement from the Sisters.

At Mercyhurst, my Catholic values were reinforced and new dimensions of my faith, service to others and a desire to teach in a Catholic School emerged.

I taught third grade at Saint Patrick's in Franklin and then came to Saint Michael where I taught various grades. Still working with the Sisters of Mercy, I served as an assistant principal and became principal in 1972. I was blessed to serve in that position for forty years. I hope that during that time, many young people received the best education possible and have made the world a better place by their achievements and continued practice of their Catholic faith. One of my greatest joys was seeing the children and grandchildren of my former students attending Catholic schools, especially Saint Michael.
