OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

The list of offertory envelope users is being reviewed for the 2022 envelopes order. Envelope order will be sent to the printer on November 8. Please make sure you reviewed your information on your current envelope to be sure your data is correct at the parish. Look for a notice in the bulletin when the offertory envelopes are ready for pick up at the church. Envelopes will not be mailed.

CHILD PROTECTION AND CREATING SAFE ENVIRONMENTS

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments-Digital Behavior: Parents create trust with children by initiating open, honest discussions. These dialogues are an opportunity to communicate values and expectations about your family’s appropriate digital behavior, including viewing or sharing content, and apps they can and cannot use. Check in frequently with your children about their digital experiences to address any potential risk of cyberbullying and harm. Be clear that your intention is to look out for their wellbeing, and that you want to have an open dialogue. Listen to their concerns and express your perspective. To minimize the risk of cyberbullying or harm from digital behavior, parents can: set clear expectations about digital behavior and online reputation, educate about the harmful effects of cyberbullying, posting hateful speech or comments, sexting, and sharing naked photos of themselves or others (including potential legal issues), be clear about what content can be viewed or shared, and identify which apps are appropriate for your child’s use and which are not. Establish rules about the amount of time that a child can spend online or on their devices. Model positive, respectful digital behavior on your own devices and accounts. For more information on cyberbullying go to: www.stopbullying.gov.. For additional parent resources visit <https://www.eriecd.org/childprotection/>.

There are many people from infant to elderly who can use a little extra help. If you can participate this year, you can drop off your donation of gift cards or money (cash or check made out to St. Michael Church) to the church office or mail it to: St. Michael Church at 85 North High St. Greenville, PA 16125, marked Giving Tree. All donations should be delivered to the church by December 12th.
