

50 YEARS

Msgr. Bernard Urbaniak

Msgr. Urbaniak has spent 29 years of his priesthood ministering to the people of St. Stanislaus Parish in Erie. In 1989, he was first named administrator of St. Stanislaus, where he was born and raised. He became pastor in 1990, and remains in that position today. In 2017, he took on the pastorate of nearby Holy Trinity, a partnered parish with St. Stanislaus. His most recent diocesan post was as dean of the Erie East Deanery, a position he held from 2009-10. For 15 years, from 1974-89, he was administrator of St. Bernard Parish, Falls Creek. Ordained in 1968, he started teaching at Cathedral Prep, but then joined the faculty at DuBois Central Catholic, DuBois, where he remained until 1988. In addition to teaching at DCC, he also served for a period there as assistant headmaster.
