Child Protection In-Service

In accordance with Diocesan Policy, a child protection in-service is provided to all children registered in the program each year. (Diocesan Policy can be found at www.eriercd.org) A child protection/safe environment in-service will take place in every grade level. Parents can refuse this In-service for their children by writing a refusal letter and mailing to the Religious Education office or emailing the Religious Education office and materials will be provided in order that the parent can complete the In-service at home.
